

Indy's Fertility Support Group

Visit our website at IndyResolve.org or e-mail us at IndyResolve@yahoo.com

We are a group of women who are unsure of where our fertility journey is going to lead us. We come together to share our stories, resources and to support each other through this incredibly frustrating process. This is not a faith based group but the church kindly lends us their space to carry out our mission. Come and get support from people who truly understand what you're going through. You are welcome to come and just listen - you will not regret it! Both men and women are free to participate. RSVPs appreciated.

Questions? E-mail Lily or Karen at IndyResolve@yahoo.com
